Overview:

For details about the project, see Group Project Data \(https://canvas.uh.edu/courses/18140/assignments/538097\). The proposal is your plan for the project. It should include a title, your thoughts on what tasks to perform, the motivation of the tasks, the challenges of the tasks, your understanding about the data, the description of the data (especially on how it could support the analysis), the justification of the usefulness of the analysis, the high-level ideas about the methods that will be used for the analysis, the expected outcomes (e.g., what kind of results, and what to submit, etc.), the main contributions of the project, how group members will collaborate and the expected workload of each group member.

Note: The proposal is a plan of the project. It is fine if some thoughts in the proposal, such as the methods, are adjusted in the final report.

Submission Instructions:

- Please submit the proposal (PDF, 2-3 pages) to Canvas
